Mr. and Mrs. Pete Gordon arrived on the morning passenger and will visit relatives and friends in Carson for a short while.

Mrs. N. B. Nelson of Reno was an arrival on the morning train and is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Karns for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wallace were departures for Sparks last evening to visit with their daughter and son-in-law in that city for a few days.

GEORGE W. KEITH

It should be the delight of the people of any community to honor with public office a citizen with the long and honorable career of Judge Keith. He is of the pioneers of our state, a resident of Nevada for nearly sixty years. Most of this long period he has spent in Ormsby county. Here he has his home, reared his family, and is still happy in the companionship of his devoted helpmate in the struggles of the early days.

Though past the "three score years and ten," Judge Keith is still active as an attorney, giving his accustomed care and attention to the interests which are placed in his keeping. During his previous term as justice of the peace, his knowledge of the law, ripe experience, and unflinching courtesy, made him a model public officer. The voters could not well make a better selection for justice of the peace than Judge Keith.

FRANK GOLDEN

RENO, Nov. 2.—"It would make little difference what ticket Frank Golden runs on, he will step right out for easy victory. He should carry all the Democratic candidates for assembly with him," said a prominent voter, in discussing the legislative ticket. "Golden should go in with one of the biggest majorities ever registered for that office.

"He has everything to qualify him," continued this ardent supporter of the young manager of the Golden hotel. "He is a successful young business man and has been signally efficient in every thing he has tackled since taking off short pants. He comes of a good family that has had much to do with the upbuilding of Reno and the advancement of Washoe county.

"I believe in giving this young blood a chance, especially when it has been tried out and found not wanting. He knows what the state needs and he is qualified to fight for it. He is a good Democrat and will be found right behind every measure that will redound to the credit of his state."

Woman Stands Good Chance Winning Out

RENO, Nov. 2.—Considerable interest attaches to the fight being waged by Mrs. Frances J. Cunningham of Sparks as Democratic candidate for clerk of Washoe county. It seems to devolve upon the question of whether or not the office in Washoe is a life job.

Mrs. Cunningham is putting up a plucky fight and is backed solidly by the whole town of Sparks, where she is well known. In her recent trip through the northern part of the county she met with a hearty response and will come into Reno with a strong backing that is being enhanced by her many friends here.

Mrs. Cunningham is a native of Michigan, where she was born in 1890. She graduated from high school at the age of 15 years, afterwards attending the Young Ladies' Seminary at Godfrey, Ill. Still later she studied art in Chicago.

After coming west several years ago she took a course in bookkeeping and through considerable experience in this line of work she has qualified herself most fittingly for the position she seeks at the hands of Democratic voters. Two years ago she was married to Francis J. Cunningham, the present city attorney of Sparks.

Those who know Mrs. Cunningham speak very highly of her abilities and declare that she has every claim for the office she is fighting for. With Democratic victory assured on state and national issues, Mrs. Cunningham will be one of the strong Democratic vote-getters on the county ticket.

Speakers Talk of Pittman Land Bill

C. L. Dedy, surveyor general, and J. M. Frame, Reno attorney, addressed a full house at the C. and C. theater last evening. Mr. Dedy took as his theme the Pittman land grant bill and showed that it would be a benefit to Nevada if properly safeguarded and that safeguarding it was up to the state authorities. The government in granting the land had surrounded it with the same precautions that accompanied grants to the various states of the Union and it was up to the individual states to protect their own possessions.

Mr. Frame, who has been a leader in the Socialist ranks of Nevada, told why he was going to support President Wilson and the Democratic national officers. They had kept their pledges with the people and had accomplished more progressive legislation than any administration that had ever been in control at Washington. Mr. Frame then took up the Pittman land grant bill and tore to pieces the arguments its opponents had made against it. His argument in brief was that the grant was a great thing for the state and meant much for its future development, and that of the people, officers or legislature of the state were incapable of taking care of the grant and protecting it they did not deserve any favors at the hands of the government.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Democratic County Central committee and was presided over by Jack Richards.

Pleasant Evening at Leisure Hour

When Mrs. B. W. Coleman called the Leisure Hour club to order last evening there sat with her Mrs. S. P. Davis, the first president of the Nevada State Federation of Women's clubs, and Mrs. P. B. Ellis, the newly elected president. Mrs. Coleman requested Mrs. Davis to preside during the evening and the latter spoke of the growth of the Federation from the time of its organization with only four clubs, to the present time when over thirty clubs are affiliated in the state organization. She also spoke of the honor paid the Leisure Hour club when the Federation chose one of the Leisure Hour members, Mrs. P. B. Ellis, to be state president for the next two years.

The speakers of the evening were: Mrs. P. B. Ellis, giving her impressions of the Biennial held in New York last May; Mrs. E. B. Yerington, on the work of the Parents' and Teachers' associations of the state; Miss Vanderlieth, Student Loan work; Miss Crisler, the work accomplished at the Federation held last week in Goldfield, and Governor Boyle on legislation to be taken up at the coming session of the legislature. Three measures he recommended to the attention of women: First, a measure recommended by Governor Oddie and later by himself—a non-partisan board to have charge of the charitable and penal institutions of the state; second, the enlarging and defining of the duties of the State Board of Health, and third, the finances of the state.

Miss Gladys Wood, Miss Mamie Berning and Mrs. Ben W. Coleman with songs, and the club orchestra, with instrumental music, added much to the pleasure of the evening.

After the program refreshments were served and a social hour spent.

A Vote for Constitutional Amendment Number 2 IS A VOTE FOR GOOD ROADS

There will be voted upon at the coming general election an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nevada, which proposes to increase the borrowing power of the State from $300,000 to one per cent of its assessed valuation.

At the last session of Congress the sum of $75,000,000 was appropriated for the construction of good roads in the United States, and of this sum nearly $1,000,000 was appropriated to the State of Nevada.

To obtain this appropriation it will be necessary for the State of Nevada to create a State Highway Fund, and with its present limited borrowing power the State is absolutely unable to create such a fund and so obtain this money.

If this amendment is carried in the coming election the legislature will be asked to create a Highway Fund, which will be distributed among the various counties in such proportions as the legislature may prescribe, supplementing such funds as the counties will expend for road construction. The total amounts thus expended by the State of Nevada and its various counties will enable Nevada to secure this government appropriation of $1,000,000.

This proposed amendment is one of the most constructive ever submitted to the people of this State. In the excitement of the general election its value and importance is overlooked.

We urge all good citizens to give their enthusiastic support to this amendment which means so much to the development and prosperity of every section of Nevada.
